

Year 1, Issue 11, November 2015

Seminar/ Workshop and Symposium

Wednesday, 11th November 2015 to Friday, 13th November 2015

Mr. Rebat Kumar Dhakal and Mr. Binod Prasad Pant, lecturers at KUSOED attended 6th Regional Seminar for UNESCO Resource Distribution and Training Centers (RDTTC) held on 11-13 November 2015 in South China Normal University, Guangzhou, PR China. Dhakal and Pant jointly presented their seminar paper entitled "Current Status of SERU-ICT in Teacher Education Curricula in Nepal". They also presented a poster highlighting the key achievements of KU RDTTC during the year 2014/15.

Friday, 20th of November and Saturday 21st of November 2015

A Seminar on ICT in Higher Education was organized by NORHED QUANTICT Project jointly undertaken by Tribhuvan University (TU), Kathmandu University (KU) and Oslo and Akershus University College of Applied Sciences (HiOA) supported by NORAD, Norway through NORHED Programme at Hotel Summit, Lalitpur on November 20-21, 2015. The two-day seminar that kicked off with the welcome note by Project Coordinator Prof. Dr. Lekhnath Sharma was jointly inaugurated by Chief Guest Prof. Dr. Tirth Raj Khaniya, Vice-Chancellor Tribhuvan University, Special Guest Prof. Dr. Ram Kantha Makaju Shrestha, Vice-Chancellor Kathmandu University, and Guest of Honour His Excellency Kjell Tormod Pettersen, Norwegian Ambassador to Nepal by lighting a ceremonial lamp. The seminar brought together over eighty academics, government officials, education and ICT professionals and other stakeholders from Nepal, India, Srilanka, Kenya and Norway. Altogether five thematic presentations and three workshops were organized on diverse topics such as pedagogy in open and distance learning (ODL); ICT integration in higher education; peer

Academic and Administrative Meeting

Wednesday 18th of November 2015

A meeting of KUSOED faculty members was held to discuss on continuation of KUSOED's classes. The meeting decided to adjust routines of MPhil and M Ed programs as per revised plan to run classes four days in a week.

PhD Qualifying

Sunday, 8th of November 2015

Mr. Radheshyam Thakur, a student of PhD in Development Studies presented his Qualifying Paper II in front of the Research Committee. After a question answer session, the Committee declared him passed. Likewise, Mr. Toya Nath Kanal, a student of PhD in Educational Leadership also presented his Qualifying Paper. He is advised to improve the paper and defend again.

Proposal and Dissertation/ Thesis Defense

Monday, 9th of November 2015

Mr. Babin Pokhrel, a student of PhD in Educational Leadership defended his Thesis entitled "Preparing Principals for School Change: A Study of Institutional Schools of Nepal." He is advised to do some further work on his thesis.

Classes Resumed

Sunday, 22nd of November 2015

KUSOED's classes resumed after a long vacation because of fuel crisis in Nepal. This time classes are running at V.S Niketan School in order to provide easy access to the students.

assisted study sessions; high-tech and low-cost eLearning implementation; course design, pedagogy materials development and assessment for ODL.